NEW PUBLICATIONS.

---

ADAMS.—The Law of Civilization and Decay. By BROOKS ADAMS.
New Edition, revised and enlarged. 8vo, cloth, $2.00.

... The book is very suggestive: it presents a theory of history which must be reckoned with, and it is remarkable for the skill with which the facts are selected.—American Historical Review.

... A work of great dignity and erudition, showing rare familiarity with the data of history, theology, and economics.—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

The author's essay is surprisingly full of penetration and illumination, and we do not hesitate to say that in respect of knowledge and of insight it deserves to rank in the class which is headed by the work of Montesquieu.—The Sun, New York.

PLEHN.—An Introduction to Public Finance. By CARL C. PLEHN, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of History and Political Science in the University of California. 12mo, $1.60 net.

It treats of public expenditures, public revenues, public indebtedness, and financial administration. By far the largest part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the different forms of taxation. The treatment is historical and analytical. It is the purpose of the book to explain existing systems and to provide that knowledge from which alone intelligent reform can proceed rather than to advocate new theories.

LEIBNITZ.—New Essays concerning the Human Understanding.
Together with an Appendix consisting of some of his Shorter Pieces. Translated from the original Latin, French, and German, with notes, by ALFRED GIDEON LANGLEY, A.M. (Brown). 8vo, $3.25 net.

The book includes a translation of the entire fifth volume of Gebhardt's edition of The Philosophical Writings of Leibnitz, consisting of an introduction by Gebhardt, several short pieces on Locke's Essay concerning Human Understanding, and the New Essays; also an appendix containing, among other writings of Leibnitz, the Essai de Dynamique; the Specimen Dynamicum; the letter to Jacob Thomasius, April 20-30, 1669; an appendix to a letter to H. Fabri, 1702; and a letter on the "Law of Continuity."

DAVENPORT.—Outlines of Economic Theory. By HERBERT J. DAVENPORT. 12mo, $2.00 net.

The doctrines of political economy are restated in terms of adaptation to environment, as one aspect of the great law of correspondence. Demand is made the primary power. Least resistance in the physical world emerges as least sacrifice in the world of motive. Upon these two notions—that of demand as primary force and of sacrifice as primary law of action—is rested a somewhat novel conception of value. Novel and important applications thereof are made to the theory of money and exchange, as well as to the science and practice of taxation.

LE BON.—The Crowd: A Study of the Popular Mind. By GUSTAVE LE BON. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

NICHOLSON.—A Treatise on Money and Essays on Monetary Problems. By J. SHIELD NICHOLSON, M.A., D.Sc., Professor of Political Economy in the University of Edinburgh, etc. Third Edition. With a New Second Part of a Treatise on Money. 12mo, $2.00.

BRYCE.—The American Commonwealth. A New Edition in one volume, revised and abridged from the larger work in two volumes, by JAMES BRYCE, M.P. for Aberdeen, with the assistance of JESSE MACY, Professor of Political Science, Iowa College. The work in this form will be specially adapted to use as a textbook in high schools and colleges, and is to be issued in time for use this fall.
Just ready.

FREEMAN.—Comparative Politics. Six lectures read before the Royal Institution in January and February, 1873. With "The Unity of History," the Rede Lecture read before the University of Cambridge, May 29, 1872. By EDWARD A. FREEMAN, M.A., Hon. D.C.L., late Fellow of Trinity College, Oxford. Second Edition. 8vo, cloth, pp. viii. + 361, $2.50.
